

North Star Trust Company

Addendum to Self-Directed IRA Agreement for Investment in Commodity and Currency Contracts, Futures and Options (CTA Association)

North Star Account Number: _____

This addendum documents my request to North Star Trust Company to limit my money reserve under the above account number to $1,000.00. I hereby represent that I am being advised by a Commodity Trading Advisor (CTA) and that I and/or my CTA have substantial experience trading commodity and currency contracts, futures and options, as permitted under your program, and that I understand the risk associated with such trading activity, including but not limited to the potential loss of all retirement assets invested in or otherwise used in the trading of commodity and currency contracts, futures and options.

I understand that there will be an additional service charge of $15.00 relating to the execution of this document and the transfer of additional funds to my commodity house trading account.

In consideration of your execution of this addendum, I do hereby indemnify and hold harmless North Star Trust Company and its affiliated companies for all loss or additional expense of any kind which may be incurred by me individually or by my IRA held by North Star Trust Company as a result of the execution of this addendum and the possible increased risk assumed hereunder by me.

Dated at Chicago, Illinois this ____ day of _____, 20____.
